Code of Conduct:

We want you to have a great weekend at Winter Retreat 2018. These guidelines are set up for safety and protection. Anyone deciding that these guidelines don't apply to them or if they decide that they no longer need to listen to chaperones, their parents will be called and asked to come and get them.

1. I will use common sense on the bus and vehicles to keep everyone safe!
2. I will not run or hazardous play in and around the stairwell, decks, landings, rooms, or parking lots.
3. I will not use or have water guns, water balloons, shaving cream fights, or any other destructive means in the house area. Any damage to a room will be paid for by the room occupants.
4. I will not go off by myself. After dark, a chaperone must be within eyesight of me outside the rooms.
5. I am only allowed at the beach or pool if a chaperone is present.
6. I will not invite people from outside our group in my room. I will not go in another person's room that is not in our group.
7. I will not engage in, facilitate or be part of coarse or graphic talk, conversation or activity.
8. Guys may not enter a girl's room and vice versa.
9. I will be cautious of my behavior and any "public displays of affection" and how that reflects on Christ, my life and the group.
10. I will not malign, gossip, or trash talk others while on this trip.
11. I will be on time for things. I am required to be at everything planned unless it is specified as optional. I will be in my own room at the time designated by the leaders.
12. I will not be a pig or slob! I will pick up after myself, others and keep all areas clean.
13. I will be respectful to all chaperones. Bad attitudes, back talk, will not be tolerated. They are here to help you.
14. On any trip, I will do my best to be courteous of other people and property which includes: NO PRANKS, properly observing quiet hours, no destruction of host property, obeying equipment rules, etc. If you get kicked out, you will be sent home!
